SALES BRIEFING: client meet with facebook

Meeting: Mon, Sep 15, 08:00 PM

Deal Stage: DISCOVERY

Location: Microsoft Teams Meeting

Key Stakeholders: joshnaacsha@gmail.com, thirisha.babu@cprime.com

PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Facebook, a global social media giant, is currently focusing on enhancing its data privacy and user safety measures in light of recent settlements and accusations. The precise budget is unknown, but given the scale of their operations and the recent $725 million privacy settlement, investment in digital transformation and cloud migration could be significant. Their pain points likely include managing large-scale data securely and efficiently, ensuring high uptime, and navigating regulatory compliance. The buying timeline could be aggressive to mitigate any further privacy concerns and regulatory scrutiny.

DEAL HISTORY & PIPELINE STATUS

There have been no previous engagements with Facebook. This is our initial meeting to understand their needs and explore how our services can align with their digital transformation goals.

Sales Cycle: Initial prospecting call

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE & MARKET PRESSURE

Facebook's recent $725 million privacy settlement and whistleblower accusations put them under intense scrutiny, creating a sense of urgency to improve data privacy and user safety. These issues highlight the influence and authority of those leading their digital safety and compliance efforts, likely making them key decision-makers in this project.

DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Potential competition from other digital transformation service providers with established relationships with Facebook. • Budget constraints following the recent large settlement may limit immediate available funds for the project. • Decision-making delays due to the involvement of multiple stakeholders and current scrutiny on Facebook.

SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Urgency to address privacy and safety concerns presents an opportunity to position our services as immediate solutions to Facebook's current challenges. • Leveraging recent negative press as a catalyst to expedite the decision-making process, highlighting how our services can address these public concerns. • Opportunity to expand the deal size by offering a comprehensive package of services, from cloud migration to continuous integration and continuous deployment (CI/CD), and digital transformation consulting.
