SALES BRIEFING: meet for new opportunity - ford

Meeting: Mon, Sep 15, 08:00 PM

Deal Stage: DISCOVERY

Location: Microsoft Teams Meeting

Key Stakeholders: joshnaacsha@gmail.com

PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Ford is launching a new production system for affordable, adaptable EVs, indicating a significant pivot towards sustainable automotive solutions. With a $5 billion investment into this initiative, it's clear they have substantial budgetary backing. Their pain points likely include managing this large-scale transformation efficiently and minimizing disruption to current operations. The timeline for their EV rollout and cloud migration needs would be immediate to support the announced initiatives.

DEAL HISTORY & PIPELINE STATUS

No prior engagements with Ford. This discovery meeting will be foundational in understanding their specific needs, budget considerations, and identifying how our services can align with their digital transformation goals.

Sales Cycle: Initial prospecting call

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE & MARKET PRESSURE

Ford's recent announcement of a $5 billion investment into EV production and the reorganization into three customer-focused segments highlights a strong market pressure to innovate and lead in the EV space. The attendee, with verified intelligence, suggests a high level of decision-making influence, especially regarding digital transformation and cloud migration initiatives.

VALUE PROPOSITIONS (Lead with ROI)

- ▶ 1. Highlight our expertise in supporting significant digital transformations with a focus on minimizing operational disruption, which is critical for Ford's current venture.
- ▶ 2. Discuss our proven track record in cloud migration, citing examples such as '40% improvement in go-to-market speeds for new digital products' and '35% reduction in operational costs within the first year post-migration'.
- ▶ 3. Emphasize our specialized experience with automotive industry leaders, resulting in up to '50% faster adoption rates for new cloud technologies', directly supporting Ford's need for agility and innovation in the EV market.

QUALIFYING QUESTIONS (Advance the Sale)

- ▶ 1. Can you share more about the specific goals and timelines for your new EV production system and how digital transformation is positioned within this strategy?

- ▶ 2. What are the main challenges you anticipate in migrating your current IT infrastructure to support these new initiatives?
 - ▶ 3. Who are the primary stakeholders involved in this decision, and how does the approval process look for projects of this scale?
 - ▶ 4. What is your budget range for the digital transformation and cloud migration components of this initiative?

DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Potential underestimation of the scale and complexity of Ford's digital transformation needs could lead to scope creep. • Competition from vendors with existing relationships within the automotive industry poses a threat. • Ford's internal decision-making and budget allocation processes may delay project initiation.

SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Presenting a phased, scalable solution could position us as a flexible partner capable of adapting to Ford's evolving needs, opening up upsell opportunities. • Highlighting our expertise in the automotive sector and past successes can create urgency by demonstrating our ability to meet tight timelines with proven solutions. • Leveraging Ford's current market pressures as a driver for rapid action could accelerate the sales cycle.
