PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Acme Corp's involvement with ACME (Automated Certificate Management Environment) suggests a potential need for cloud-based certificate management or automation solutions. We need to quickly qualify their current infrastructure and pain points around certificate management to see if it aligns with our cloud migration and architecture services. Understanding their current setup and future goals will allow us to determine budget availability and decision-making authority.

! DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Acme Corp may already have a preferred vendor for certificate management solutions or be considering alternative approaches that don't require cloud migration (e.g. using internal resources). • Budget constraints or internal resistance to change may delay the decision-making process or prevent the project from moving forward. They have an incumbent security provider. • If we are unable to clearly articulate the ROI and business benefits of Cprime's solutions, Acme Corp may not see the value in investing in our services and may choose a cheaper, less comprehensive solution.

🚀 SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Acme Corp's involvement in ACME protocols suggests a broader need for cloud-based security and automation solutions, creating upsell opportunities for Cprime's other services. • Highlight the urgency of modernizing certificate management infrastructure to capitalize on market opportunities and stay ahead of the competition. Emphasize potential for faster growth and increased market share. • Leverage Cprime's competitive advantages, such as our deep expertise in cloud migration and DevOps, to differentiate ourselves from competitors and win the deal.
