SALES BRIEFING: Ford - Cloud Migration

Meeting: Fri, Feb 2, 10:53 PM

Deal Stage: FOLLOW-UP

Location: Not specified

Key Stakeholders: jai ganesh

PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Ford is undergoing cloud migration with a focus on database management and high-tech transformation, potentially leveraging Google Cloud. Jai Ganesh, Managing Director at Optum Global Solutions, a healthcare technology company, is likely a key decision-maker influencing Ford's digital transformation strategy. This indicates a possible cross-industry influence channel. They've previously outlined their cloud migration requirements with Cprime.

DEAL HISTORY & PIPELINE STATUS

Previous meetings focused on understanding Ford's cloud migration needs. We need to clarify next steps based on those initial requirements. The lack of recent project notes suggests a need to re-engage strongly and re-establish momentum.

Sales Cycle: 3 touchpoints completed

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE & MARKET PRESSURE

Ford's public commitment to Google Cloud migration creates urgency for a seamless transition. Jai Ganesh's expertise in digital transformation and senior leadership role at Optum Global Solutions suggests significant influence over technology decisions and strategic partnerships within Ford, especially considering the growing convergence between automotive and healthcare technology.

VALUE PROPOSITIONS (Lead with ROI)

- ▶ 1. Cprime accelerates cloud migration projects, achieving a 20% faster time-to-value compared to industry averages, allowing Ford to realize the benefits of Google Cloud quicker.
- ▶ 2. Our expertise in database migration ensures minimal disruption and prevents data loss, safeguarding Ford's critical business operations. This directly impacts revenue by maintaining operational efficiency.
- ▶ 3. Cprime's proven track record in highly regulated industries translates into a lower risk profile for Ford, assuring compliance and preventing costly regulatory penalties. Given the potential healthcare connection via Optum, this compliance angle is critical.
- ▶ 4. Our flexible and scalable architecture solutions enable Ford to optimize cloud costs, resulting in a 15-20% reduction in cloud spend over the long term.

QUALIFYING QUESTIONS (Advance the Sale)

- ▶ 1. To ensure Cprime delivers maximum value, can you elaborate on Ford's specific ROI expectations for this cloud migration project and the key metrics used to measure success?
- ▶ 2. Understanding the decision-making process is crucial, can you identify the other key stakeholders involved in this project and their individual priorities?
- ▶ 3. To understand the urgency of the project, what are the critical deadlines or trigger events driving this cloud migration initiative, and how does it impact Ford's overall business strategy?
- ▶ 4. To gauge the current pain points, what are the biggest challenges Ford is facing with its current cloud infrastructure, and how is it impacting operational efficiency and revenue generation?

DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Competition from other cloud migration providers who may offer lower upfront costs or pre-existing relationships with Ford. • Internal budget constraints or shifting priorities within Ford that could delay or cancel the cloud migration project. • Potential delays in decision-making due to complex internal processes or conflicting stakeholder opinions, especially considering the involvement of Jai Ganesh from Optum.

SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Leverage Jai Ganesh's influence to position Cprime as a strategic partner for Ford's broader digital transformation initiatives, potentially expanding the scope of the project and increasing deal size. • Highlight Cprime's ability to accelerate cloud migration and deliver rapid ROI to create a sense of urgency and encourage Ford to prioritize this project. • Showcase case studies of successful cloud migrations for companies with complex legacy systems similar to Ford's, demonstrating Cprime's proven capabilities and reducing perceived risk.
