SALES BRIEFING: Ford - Ford

Meeting: Sun, Aug 31, 07:30 PM

Deal Stage: FOLLOW-UP

Location: Not specified

Key Stakeholders: joshna.acsha@cprime.com

PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Ford is a major automotive manufacturer investing heavily in cloud migration, particularly with Google Cloud. Joshna Acsha is likely involved in cloud initiatives, and Cprime's expertise can help optimize their migration for increased developer productivity and operational efficiency. Based on ongoing meetings, they are likely exploring solutions, but the budget and timeline need further qualification.

DEAL HISTORY & PIPELINE STATUS

Three previous meetings suggest sustained interest. We need to determine specific commitments made, objections regarding pricing or timelines raised, budget details discussed, and the current deal stage (e.g., Qualification, Solution Design, Proposal).

Sales Cycle: 3 touchpoints completed

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE & MARKET PRESSURE

Ford's public commitment to Google Cloud and digital transformation creates urgency. Musser's previous role suggests a focus on data-driven innovation, making the Ford Pro API a potential entry point for discussion.

Market Research: "Hunter.io research: Ford - Ford"

DECISION MAKER INTELLIGENCE

VALUE PROPOSITIONS (Lead with ROI)

- ▶ 1. Showcase Cprime's proven track record in accelerating cloud migration for enterprises, emphasizing ROI through faster deployments, reduced operational costs, and increased developer agility (cite specific case studies with quantified results).
- ▶ 2. Highlight Cprime's expertise in DevOps and CI/CD implementation, demonstrating how our solutions can streamline Ford's software development lifecycle and improve time-to-market for new vehicle features (focus on improved revenue generation).
- ▶ 3. Position Cprime as a strategic consulting partner, offering tailored solutions that align with Ford's specific cloud migration goals and support their data-driven innovation initiatives (emphasize long-term partnership and value creation).
- ▶ 4. Discuss Ford Pro API and how Cprime could accelerate onboarding by leveraging our DevOps expertise

QUALIFYING QUESTIONS (Advance the Sale)

- ▶ 1. What are your key performance indicators (KPIs) for the cloud migration project, and how will you measure success in terms of revenue generation, cost savings, or market share?
  - ▶ 2. What is your budget allocation for cloud migration and DevOps implementation, and what are the key decision-making criteria for selecting a technology partner?
  - ▶ 3. What is your timeline for achieving your cloud migration goals, and what are the critical milestones and dependencies that need to be addressed?
  - ▶ 4. Besides Google Cloud, are you using other platforms or vendors? How do you prioritize them?

DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Ford's established relationship with Google Cloud and potential preference for their professional services could pose a competitive threat. • Budget constraints or delays in internal approvals could hinder the deal's progress and impact the timeline. • Stakeholder misalignment or conflicting priorities regarding cloud migration could lead to indecision and stall the sales process.

SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Ford's growing focus on data-driven innovation presents an opportunity to upsell Cprime's data analytics and AI consulting services. • The urgency to accelerate cloud migration and stay ahead of the competition could drive a faster sales cycle and increase the deal size. • Cprime's proven expertise in DevOps and CI/CD implementation can provide a competitive advantage and secure a long-term partnership with Ford.
