SALES BRIEFING: ford meeting

Meeting: Thu, Sep 25, 01:30 PM

Deal Stage: DISCOVERY

Location: Microsoft Teams Meeting

Key Stakeholders: thirishudoll511@gmail.com

PROSPECT PROFILE & QUALIFICATION

Ford Motor Company, in light of recent challenges with a massive vehicle recall, likely faces significant pressure to enhance operational efficiencies and reduce costs. The recall underscores the need for robust, scalable digital transformation solutions to improve product quality monitoring and decrease time-to-market for fixes. Budget specifics unknown, but given the scale, the investment in digital transformation could be substantial.

DEAL HISTORY & PIPELINE STATUS

No previous engagements. This is our first opportunity to understand their needs, discuss potential budget implications, and gauge the deal's stage.

Sales Cycle: Initial prospecting call

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE & MARKET PRESSURE

Ford's recent recall of over 115,000 trucks due to steering defects creates an immediate need for improved operational efficiencies and product monitoring. This incident likely places the contact, presumed to be a key decision-maker given their involvement in this meeting, under significant pressure to find scalable and effective solutions quickly.

VALUE PROPOSITIONS (Lead with ROI)

- ▶ 1. Demonstrate how our digital transformation consulting can streamline Ford's operational processes, potentially reducing time-to-market for recalls and enhancing product quality monitoring.
- ▶ 2. Highlight past success stories where our cloud migration services have led to a 20% reduction in operational costs within the first year post-implementation.
- ▶ 3. Showcase our DevOps & CI/CD implementation's role in achieving 99.9% uptime for critical systems, ensuring continuous monitoring and rapid response capabilities.

QUALIFYING QUESTIONS (Advance the Sale)

- ▶ 1. Can you outline the current challenges Ford faces in monitoring and responding to product quality issues?
- ▶ 2. What timeline is Ford considering for implementing digital transformation initiatives to address these challenges?
- ▶ 3. Who, besides yourself, will be involved in the decision-making process for this project, and what are the key criteria for selection?

- ▶ 4. What budget range has Ford allocated for digital transformation projects in response to the recent recall?

DEAL RISKS & OBJECTION HANDLING

Potential Deal Killers: Competition from other consulting firms offering similar digital transformation services at potentially lower costs. • Budget constraints at Ford due to the financial impact of the recall, potentially limiting their willingness to invest in large-scale transformations. • Decision delays due to the complexity of the recall situation and the number of stakeholders involved.

SALES OPPORTUNITIES & EXPANSION

Revenue Growth Potential: Urgency to address the recall's fallout could accelerate Ford's decision-making process, presenting an opportunity to close the deal quickly. • Potential to expand the deal size by offering a comprehensive package that includes continuous improvement and monitoring beyond the initial digital transformation project. • Leveraging the recent recall as a case for the importance of our services, thereby creating competitive differentiation.
